Game Day Review for 10-19-2002

Mahalo Hawaii

Saturday, October 19th, 2002 - Kaiser High School, Hawaii - Game time - 11:05pm.

Arizona Caliente 23 - Hawaii Legends 6

Arizona Caliente made history and a new legend, by defeating the Hawaii Legends at their home field. With a very proud and deserving run of being undefeated at home, the Hawaii Legends were over taken by a team that turned up the Caliente heat for the second game in the 2 game series. The Caliente was again the first to score as they had been in the first meeting on Thursday night, only this game, they never looked back. The Caliente dominated the field both offensively and defensively taking the Legends out of their game. This series of games, appropriately named "Battle of the Big Teams", ends as a split for the 2 teams, and puts a mark on each team's undefeated record. It is almost guaranteed these 2 teams will face each other in the playoffs, in what would be sure to be one of the best rematches in women's football.

Offensive Player of the Game: #14 Angie Reyes

Defensive Co-Players of the Game: #92 Kim "EQ" Hoke & #61 Amy "A-bomb" Arnold

Game Day Review for 10-17-2002

Thursday, October 17th, 2002 - Waiialua High School, Hawaii - Game time - 7:05pm

Arizona 12 - Hawaii Legends 36

Although the Caliente would be the first to score at 2:14 into the first quarter on the Caliente's first offensive possession, the Legends quickly took control of the game, and once again proved why Hawaii is undefeated at home. A day of rain that continued on and off through the game, left the field sloppy and the Caliente's game even more sloppy. Foolish fumbles and turnovers by the Caliente kept their defense very busy against the strong Legends, and the Caliente had only the next 36 hours to learn from the mistakes and clean up their game before they would face the Legends again.

Offensive Player of the Game: #28 Tiffany Latta

Defensive Player of the Game: #24 Summer Meservy
